The Asylum Seeker Resource Centre is Australia’s leading asylum seeker organisation. They are a multi-award winning, independent and non-federal government funded human rights organisation. They work at the coalface assisting some of the most disadvantaged people in our community.

A speaker from the Asylum Seeker Resource Centre coming to Sandringham to open our minds about things like what asylum seekers might be fleeing from and how we can help. This organisation has a huge role in providing people who seek asylum, the basic needs like food, visas, employment and other basic human rights.

Registration forms are located outside the Student Managers’ office. Be sure to sign up today, as this is an opportunity not to be missed!
